

THE BROOMFIELD BULLETIN:
UPCOMING EVENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

DR. VANESSA EWING
WEEK OF: MARCH 30TH 2009

Dear Parents,

We had a wonderful week back from spring break. Our students enjoyed a school wide field trip to see "Poetrees", a professional performance of songs and stories about nature that were written by children, for children. Today I will be joining our older Broomfield Academy Girl Scouts as they embark on a field trip to Rocky Mountain Estes YMCA and next Tuesday-Friday our fifth and sixth grade students will enjoy outdoor education classes and camping at the YMCA also. As part of this tradition for our oldest students, I will be off campus spending time with them on Tuesday and Wednesday and their core teacher Ms. Essig will be joining them for the remainder of the trip Wednesday through Friday. We are sure to enjoy some unpredictable spring weather, both on our outdoor education classes in Estes Park and back at Broomfield Academy. Of course, the crazy weather will be part of the fun and adventure for us all as well.

I wish you an enjoyable upcoming weekend!
Kind regards, Dr. Ewing

Operations and Facilities Column

An updated project plan for the pool decking and systems has been submitted to the City of Broomfield for review. Preparations are being made for the Saturday, April 11 (10-2) and Tuesday, April 14 (9-10 and 5-6) open houses. The den floor was thoroughly cleaned and re-waxed. Trees were trimmed throughout the property. New sports equipment was purchased for each classroom and for the after-school program. New banners have been purchased and will be hung next week. A new storage bin for the sandbox toys was put in place. New safety cones were placed on the blacktop. A review of insurance coverage is being conducted and will be completed next week.

Please feel free to contact me or the front office with any questions, concerns or suggestions you might have. My email address can be found on the school website. Michael

Extended Day- Summer Fever Crafts and Activities:

During extended day our upper grades students have been doing a terrific job of working hard on homework and our lower grades students have had fun with our summer fever crafts and activities. All students are enjoying our Fun Friday games and snacks. Many students have also enjoyed our additional programs for Yearbook, Chess Club, Dance, and Girl Scouts this past week.
